

Aluminum Counter Door

R
o
l
l
i n
g

C
o
u
n
t
e
r

D
o
o
r

R&S Aluminum Counter Doors offer compact design and attractive appearance. Anodized extruded aluminum components combine a light weight, smooth, bright finish and excellent corrosion resistance for a variety of applications. Counter door construction can be modified to provide anodized aluminum service doors up to 12 feet wide, 10 feet high and a maximum of 100 square feet.

FEATURES:

- . 10" to 12" Headroom Square Brackets
- . Between-Jamb or Face Mounting
- . Clear or Bronze Finish
- . Push-Up, Awning Crank , Chain, Motor

#15 Slat Type

Optional

Cylinder Locks: on footpiece inside or outside

Finish: standard clear anodized finish may be upgraded to mill or bronze

Powdercoat Finish: on curtain, footpiece, and guides

Tubular Motor Operator: motors completely contained within the barrel can be provided for counter doors up to 84 square feet in limited usage applications. Only the manual crank override is visible outside the bracket. The units are available in 115 volt/single phase with constant contact one button or keyswitch control. They can also be provided with a low voltage controller when options such as a reversing edge or timer are required. timer are required.

Rolling Door Products (rsdrprod.com)

Union City, CA (800) 221-3667 Portland, OR (800) 359-4197 Pomona, CA 800-350-3667

